To whom it may concern:

Please accept this letter as a confirmation for acceptance of Susan Kett's paper, 'What the statistics tell us - how to use empiric data in design for emotional impressions', at the upcoming International Conference on Research into Design 2017 to be held between the dates of January 9-11, 2017 in Guwahati, India. ICoRD'17 is hosted and supported by Department of Design at Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati.

ICoRD'17 is the sixth in a series of conferences intended to be held every two years in India to bring together the international community from diverse areas of design practice, education and research. It aims to showcase cutting edge research about design to the stakeholders; aid the ongoing process of developing and extending the collective vision through emerging research challenges and questions. The theme of ICoRD'17 is 'Design for communities'. While Design traditionally focused on the development of products for the individual, the emerging consensus on working towards a more sustainable world demands greater attention to designing for and with communities. The conference schedule with other details are available to view at: <http://www.iitg.ac.in/icord17/>

This letter serves to provide a request for participation in order to present a paper in this important conference. We look forward to Susan Kett's participation.
