About the Speaker

Prof. Alex Hansen

Professor Alex Hansen is currently the Director of the Center of Excellence Porous Media Laboratory (PoreLab), Norwegian University of Science and Technology. He is a member of European Physical Society, Norwegian Academy of Technical Sciences and International Society of porous media. He is also a recipient of several fellowships and awards that include Joliot Curie Fellowship, Nansen Award for Young Scientists, Kristian Birkeland Prize in Physics, and Dr. Honoris Causa (University of Rennes 1, France). He has significant research contributions in the areas of Non-equilibrium statistical mechanics, Physics of porous and granular media, Complex matter Physics, Transport and breakdown phenomena in disordered systems. He is also an honorary faculty member of the department of Physics, IIT Guwahati since 2021.
